HAYHURST FAMILY HISTORY

In assembling material for the Hayhurst family history, we have obtained records beginning with one Cuthbert Hayhurst and his wife, Mary Ruud. He was the Quaker emigrant minister who brought the Hayhurst family name to America from Slaidburne, Yorkshire, England, in 1682.

He, together with other Friends, among them William Penn, set sail on the good ship "Welcome" with Capt. Greenway.

Our records name William, the eldest son, who was made executor of the will of his parents and one of the heirs to the 500 acres of land on the Neshaminy Creek in 1686 and Cuthbert Hayhurst Jr., who was 4 years old when he came with his parents to America. Cuthbert Jr., who was born in 1678 in England, was married to Mary Harker in 1723 and died in 1753.

Interesting to note is the fact that the Rev. Wm. P. Hayhurst family (he a retired Baptist minister) have what is thought to be the original "Concordance of the Bible in English" (1643) belonging to Cuthbert Hayhurst, the emigrant. It came down to him through his uncle, the Rev. Lamar W. Hayhurst who inherited it from his father, Benajah H. Hayhurst.

James Hayhurst was born to Cuthbert and Mary Harker Hayhurst in 1732. (If there were other children born to this union we have no record of them.) James was married to Ann Spencer in 1757 and died in 1783. To this union one son, James Jr., was born in 1758 in Middletown (present Langhorne), Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He was married to Mary Warner in 1781. Mary was born in 1764 and died in 1825.

May we say here that none of the Hayhursts fought in the Revolutionary War, being of Quaker descent, but gave funds to support the militia in Maryland where they lived at the time.

James Jr. died in 1839 and is buried in Meigs County, Ohio, at the "Great Bend" of the Ohio River, exactly at the spot where George Washington camped on Nov. 5, 1770. There is a monument to him at that place which was erected at the time of his daughter Sarah Hall's death in 1868, when she arranged in her will for several stones to be erected in the center of her 400 acre farm overlooking the Ohio River, (her husband James Hall, having died in 1825).

James Hayhurst Jr. and Mary Warner, his wife, were parents of the following children: 1. Sarah (Hall); 2. Rachel (Young); 3. Job (who married Hannah Smalley); 4. Ely or Elah (who married Nancy Passmore); 5. Hannah (Riffle); 6. John (who married Nancy Inks); 7. Benjamin (who married Hannah Passmore), and 8. David (who was probably married twice, one of his wives is said to have been Hannah Miller. He moved to Little Rock, Arkansas, where he died at least later than 1865).

Our branch of the family stems from the 6th son, John, born on Oct. 27, 1789, in Fayette County, Western Pennsylvania. He was undoubtedly born at the tavern which his father established at a place called Old Orchard on Braddocks Run.

Braddocks Run is where General Braddock was buried by his British soldiers when he was shot by an American soldier because of his severe discipline while he and Major Washington were fighting the French and Indians about 1754-55 on the Fort Pitt expedition. Braddock's grave is now marked with a monument on a knoll (present Route 40) where Braddock's road crosses the Pike about 10 miles east of Uniontown on top of the Laurel Hill plateau.

John Hayhurst was raised near Laurel Hill, Pennsylvania.

In the year () he was married to Nancy Inks, daughter of Thomas Inks. The Inks were a prominent family in that vicinity to which they are said to have come in 1783 at about which time Thomas Inks established the Inks Tavern, apparently only a mile or so from the Old Orchard Tavern. John was a Quaker by birth and Nancy was not, so his family disowned him as was the custom in those days for marrying outside the faith. Nancy Inks was descended from a noble family in England and had beautiful red hair, a trait that is shared by many members of the later generations of the family.

After John and Nancy were married they moved from Pennsylvania to Adams County, Ohio, in 1816. Then to Fountain County, Indiana, in 1829. In 1834, accomp-panied by his son William, then 21 years old, and John Hibbs. John came overland on horseback to what is now Kankakee County, Illinois, looking for a suitable location in which to take up land. Traveling as far north as Milwaukee, they returned to Kankakee County and entered land on section 34, Yellowhead township. During the winters of 1834-35 they came again from Indiana and erected a log cabin on the south side of the "six mile grove" road opposite the old Clarence Hayden place. They were the original settlers of this community. In Yellowhead township John Hayhurst spent the balance of his life, his death occurring here November 9, 1857. His wife survived him fourteen years. Her death occurring 1871. The order of the children of John and Nancy Inks were:

1. Dr. William (who married Susannah Perry).
2. Julia (who married John Hibbs).
3. Warner (died a bachelor).
4. Thomas (married twice to Mary Jane Wells and Sarah Jane Coffinberry).
5. Simon (married twice to Mary Childress and Sarah Ann Ritter).
6. James (died a bachelor).
7. Caleb (who married Caroline Woore).
8. John J. (who married Margaret Starkey).

It is from these children of John and Nancy Hayhurst that our records are compiled.

Dr. William Hayhurst was born near Uniontown, Fulton County, Penn., August 26, 1814.

The year after locating in Yellowhead township with his parents, William Hayhurst returned to Indiana and on January 24, 1836 married Susannah Perry, who was born in Muskingum County, Ohio, Aug. 15, 1818, a daughter of John and Delilah (Stevens) Perry. Susannah Perry was left an orphan at an early age, and was taken by an aunt to Fountain County, Indiana, where she grew to womanhood. Mr. Hayhurst and his bride returned soon after to the cabin in Yellowhead township, and among surroundings strange and full of deprivations and dangers, began the work of tilling a prairie farm. In 1846 they moved to Sherburnville, Kankakee County, Ill., where William began the practice of medicine, for which he had previously qualified and where he was identified with professional affairs for forty-six years. His death occurred in his adopted village, January 2, 1891. He became widely and favorably known, leading the strenuous and wearying life of the pioneer physician, and maintaining to the last his reputation for skillful and successful treatment of human ills, especially fever cases. Much of the time he rode on horseback to visit the sick, strapping his medicine cases to the saddle. A many-sided and forceful man, his views and opinions were eagerly sought and as willingly followed, and he took an active part in politics and religion, although he never sought or was willing to accept official recognition. He was a staunch member of the Christian church, which he joined in 1834 and in which he worked with unceasing vigor for more than fifty years.

He was one of the pillars of the church in his neighborhood and in his daily life gave practical example of its teaching. At all times a great reader, he had the distinction during 1843-46 of being the only man in his end of the county who regularly took a newspaper. His wife, who embodied the excellencies, usually associated with women of other days, who married pioneers, and with them sacrificed the peace and advantages of settled communities, descended from a brave family. Her father, John Perry was a first cousin to Commodore Oliver H. Perry, the hero of the naval battle on Lake Erie in 1813 whose famous message, "We have met the enemy and he is ours" will remain as long as the country stands. She became the mother of ten children:

1. John B. (who married Mary Ann Farrington).
2. Benjamin P. (who married Juliet Farrington).
3. Nancy E. (who married George W. Lyon).
4. William R. (who married Emma Coffinberry).
5. Layman W. (a bachelor).
6. Jerome (who married Mary Anderson).
7. Edwin L. (who married Angenette Smith).
8. Alice D. (who married Walter Cleavor).
9. Clara (who married Wallace Jones).
10. Elery (deceased).

SHERBURNVILLE CHURCH HISTORY

On Sunday, Sept. 8, 1940, the Sherburnville Church of Christ celebrated its One Hundredth Anniversary.

The land for the church and cemetery was donated by Abiather Britton. The building of the church began in 1860, but its progress was interrupted by the Civil War, later the work was resumed and the church was finished in 1886. The money and labor for the church were donated. This small band of people had been meeting in the homes and then in the school until the church was finished. The first school house was built in 1847 at a total outlay of $2.80 for sash and glass. It was made of split logs.

The original membership included the following: Ancil Britton, David and Mary Britton, Mary Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Hayhurst (nee Inks), Dr. and Mrs. William Hayhurst, Mr. and Mrs. John Hibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Childress, Ruben Bissett—a widower, William Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Sargent, Rev. and Mrs. Nathan Coffinbury. Those uniting later were John Smith, Lillie Britton, John B. Hayhurst, John Childress, Maria Hibbs, Joel L. Brooks, Melvina Phillips. Two latter valuable accessions were Volney Dickey and William Smith. This brings the date up to 1855.

A pageant representing the founding of the Sherburnville church by forty members of the Sherburnville church with many descendants of the early membership taking part, each wearing a costume suitable to the period, formed a part of the program. A historic marker to the Rev. Nathan L. Coffenbury was also unveiled. This data was collected and the day's program arranged by the pastor, the late Rev. G. A. Hess.

A marker to Rev. Hess' memory has been erected at the church by the members and friends of the Sherburnville Christian Church.

A genealogy of descendants follows.
